President Nimick Denies That There is Any Ill Feeling in the Club.

GENERAL BASE BALL NEWS OF THE DAY

After a long and weary try the Pittsburg ball team won a game yesterday. They defeated the Clevelands, and Sowders, the new man from Boston, pitched. The team played without a fielding error, and Kuehne made a home run. The Washington tail-enders defeated the Bostons. President Nimick denies that there is any ill feeling in the local team because of the presence of in the local team because of the presence of Rowe and White.

PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE. CLEVELAND, July 22.—Cleveland lost to-day's game to Pittsburg through O'Brien's panicky work in the first inning, which gave Pittsburg three runs. Cleveland fought along for seven innings to make up what was lost there, and bid fair to do it, when O'Brien wobbled again and the Babies they are dissatisfied and don't want to play there is all rot. Their indifferent work is caused by lack of practice only, and a few more games will put them in shape, and they will be playing as good ball as they ever did. Those men are getting $3,500 a year, and dissatisfaction don't lurk around where such salaries exist. Look at Jerry Denny. Twelve hundred dollars added to his salary would not make $3,500. He is the kind of man to get dissatisfied."—Sporting Times. joined him. Out of the spell came four more unearned runs. Cleveland hit Sowders hard, but the lead in the first inning buoyed the cripples up and they fielded so well that only earned runs "went" and the Babies could get but two of those. The hits off Sowders were untimely and the failure to hit very costly. O'Brien was well supported up to the eighth. The attendance was 1,800.

CLEVELAND EARNED THE FIRST. Cleveland earned its first run in the fifth when Zimmer hit to center, went to second on O'Brien's base on balls, and scored on Strick-er's baser to left. The run in the seventh was also made and earned by Zimmer, who with scored on O'Brien's high bounder over Jack Rowe's head. Pittsburgh got three unearned runs in the first. O'Brien gave Hanlon and Mil-O'Brien intercepted the throw in, and threw high and wide past Tebeau into the bleachers All three men had scored before the ball got back to the plate. After that the game was of the machine order until the eighth.

THE BALL WAS HIT HARD all the time and occasionally safe. In the eighth Cleveland looked like a winner, but a fast one at Rowe brought out a double play and killed the Bables' chances. In the last half of the eighth the Pittsburgs won the game with four more unearned runs. After chances to retire the side had been effered the hard hit ting came. With Miller out, Beckley hit one too hard for Tebeau to handle. O'Brien hit Maul and filled first and second, and when Rowe drove the ball to left Twitchell passed it and Beckley scored. Tebeau got the ball and threw badly to the plate, Maul scoring, and on Smith's fly out to left Rowe scored, Zimmer dropping Twitchell's good return as he touched the runner. Then Kuchne drove the ball to right for a home run and Fields followed with a three-baser to left, but was left on Sowder's fly to McAlcer. Score:

FUNERAL OF W. A. ILES.

The Casket Buried in Flowers and the Remains Taken to Providence. The remains of the late William A. Iles were taken last evening for Providence, R. I., where they will be interred. While lying in state in St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, surrounded by the many costly floral tributes, this afternoon, they were viewed by several thousand persons.

Deceased was a man of sterling qualities, and was universally beloved and respected. His high standing in the community and prompt action in behalf of those in need are but few of the things that will cause him to be missed. He was born on the Isle of Wight, 59 years ago, and in his early days spent much time in traveling, having visited most of the interesting portions of the globe. He was known to be one of the finest accountants in the country and was for years prior to his association with the for years prior to his association with the Tube Works Company one of the principal assistants of the late A. There is undoubtedly an increasing interest being displayed in pedestrianism in and about Pittsburg. For a long time that very old and entertaining sport has been under a ban in this city; that is, professionally. The amsteurs have also been far away in the back until very recently. The causes of all this are well known and have been

ever, it seems as if foot racing would once more become a popular sport here, as there are no less than three or four prominent races on the tapis, and also a big sprint handicap. Probably the most important face that is likely to take place is that proposed between Miller, of Philadelphia, and E. C. McClelland, of this city. Negotiations have been going on for some time for a 10-mile race between these two men. McClelland has finally written Miller to the effect that he, McCleiland, will run Miller 10 miles for $500 a side, the race to take Miller 10 miles for 8000 a side, the race to take place either here or at Philadelphia, expenses, of course, to be paid for choice of track. It is probable that a match will be made within a few days, as Miller has some good backing. He is reputed a good runner for 5, 8 or 10 miles, but people in a position to know think he will be a some and the second range. McClelland's collapse against a good man. McClelland's party is in earnest about the race, as it is gen-erally understood that "Mac" is a genuine runner for any distance from 3 to 15 or 20 miles At any rate he has a record unbroken by de

At any rate he has a record unbroken by de-feat, and that is a first-class recommendation. That he is a stayer no one can deny, and that is the quality needed in a 10-mile race. Negotiations are also going on for a sprint race of 100 yards between Grant White, late of Philadelphia, and the veteran Davy Sheehan. A race between these two speedy men for $250 a side would without doubt be an interesting

A well-known sporting man stated last even ing that Fred Vokes is extremely anxious to run George Smith, of this city, 150 yards for $250 or $500 a side. An offer of this kind is sur $200 of $000 a side. An offer of this kind is sur-prising, and it will be more surprising still if a good stake is not forthcoming for George Smith to run a man like Vokes 150 yards. It is safe to say that in his best day Vokes was yards short of Smith at the distance named. It may not be wide of the mark to say that if Vokes really means business he will be accommo-dated.

teresting to sporting people to know that an approaching quarter mile race in England is causing considerable international interest, the race between "Donovan," of America, and Tattersall, the famous English ped. The betting is heavy on the result. However, it is stated on reliable authority that Donovan is Steve Farrell, the Eastern runner who was to be marched against Priddy for a half-mile race when the latter was in form. It will, therefore, be no surprise to those who know Farrell it "Donovan" defeats Tattersall.

There are still numerous American peds in England, and a batch of them are entered for the July Sheffield handicap. J. Quirk, whom all Pittsburg sporting people know, is a hot favorite for the event, his price being as low as 4 to 1. He has been first favorite for several weeks.

LOUISVILLE, KY., July 22.—It is reported from Chicago that Sam Bryant, the well-known turfman, will sell his interest in Proctor Knott and Come-to-Taw to his partner, Geo. Scoggan. Bryant will at the same time sell out all his other race horses. Next year he will again come on the turf, and with an entirely new stable. The sale is to take place after the Saratoga meeting. Knott's next race will be in the Omnibus stakes, in which he will meet Salvator.

LONDON, July 22.—The Metropolitan Crick London, July 22.—The Metropolitan Cricket Club presented a very strong team against the Americans to-day. Mr. W. G. Grace and other well-known amateurs are members of the team. The Britishers made vigorous play from the very beginning, and scored in the first innings a total of $85 runs. The fielding of the Americans was regarded as rather lax, and to this defective fielding may be credited not a few of the 353 runs. The Americans scored a total of 85 runs for four wickets when stumps QUAY'S DEBTS PAID.

Speaking of the pugilistic championship R. K. Fox says: NOW RECEIVE THEIR REWARDS.

K. Fox says:

"John I. Sullivan, by his victory over Jake Kiirain, gained the championship of the world and the Police Gazette champions belt, which trophy is emblematic of the heavy-weight pugilistic championship. It is necessary for a pugilist holding the trophy to defend it against all comers, and accept all bona fide challenges for three years, and should he fail to do so the trophy and the championship revert to the first challenger. Sullivan, it appears, is not going to occupy the top rung of the pugilistic ladder without having one of the many heavy-weights making an effort to pull him from his pinnacle, for Jem Smith, the champion of Carpet Manufacturers Obtain a Customs Decision Which is
